PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 107th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 147

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2001

No. 163

Senate

The Senate met at 9 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable JEAN CARNAHAN, a Senator from the State of Missouri.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, we thank You for the privilege of living in this land You have blessed so bountifully. You have called the United States to be a demonstration of freedom and equality, righteousness and justice, opportunity and hope that You desire for all nations. O God, help us to be faithful to our heritage in this time of war against terrorism.

Today we gratefully remember the memory of Johnny Michael "Mike" Spann, marine and CIA agent who gave his life in the battle in Afghanistan, in his own words, "to make this world a better place in which to live."

Now we praise You for the way that You have blessed this Senate with great leaders in each period of our history. Through them You continue to give Your vision for the unfolding of the American dream. Bless the Senators with a renewed sense of their calling to greatness through Your grace. You have appointed them; now anoint them afresh with Your spirit. As they confront the soul-sized, crucial issues today, give them a spirit of unity and cooperativeness. The workload is great, the pressure is heavy, the challenges formidable, but nothing is impossible for You.

Fill this Chamber with Your presence. You are the judge of all that will be said and done today. Ultimately, we have no one to please or answer to but You. With renewed commitment to You and reignited patriotism, we press on to live the page of American history that will be written today. Through our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable JEAN CARNAHAN led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.
